HELPING MEGAN IMRIE ACHIEVE GOLD IN 2010

Megan Imrie is the 22-year-old daughter of Marg and Murray Imrie. Murray is a well-known trapper from Falcon Lake, Manitoba. Megan is considered one of the top female biathletes in Canada and has represented her country successfully on several occasions, both nationally and internationally. Megan's dream is to compete in the upcoming 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver.

In order for Megan to compete at a world-class level, she needs financial support.

In March, 2009, NAFA created a special account for trappers to donate pelts for Meagan. All proceeds from the sales of these pelts have gone to Megan to help fund her rigorous training program.

Here, we would like to thank all those who generously donated pelts.

So, thank you to all the trappers who gave to help Meagan Imrie strive for Gold in 2010.
